My Family
in Christ,

As a church, there is a call to prayer for the first seven days of each month, praying for the ministries of the church. This month, we will engage in prayers of thanksgiving and intercession as we give thanks to our heavenly Father for sheltering us through the recent hurricanes; and as we pray for the recovery of our brothers and sisters who suffered from the hurricanes.

As we focus this month, one of the thoughts that remains steadfast in my mind is "the need for persistent prayers." The following article – The Power of Persistent Prayer – was selected for our reflection. Let us as a church and as individuals strive to be persistent in our prayers for this nation, this ministry of Zion, and the universal church, standing on the promise that the effectual fervent prayers of the righteous soul avail much. Be blessed and covered.

Don't Give Up on Your Prayers: The Power of Persistent Prayer

*(Posted on 02 July 2014
by Goodness of God Ministries)*

Do we give up too easily in our prayer lives? Do we put a timetable in our requests and prayers before God? Does our faith sizzle out after a few days of not seeing any results in our prayer life? Are we persistent and unwavering in our prayers and confident in our faithful God or is our prayer life plagued with doubts, worry and fear? Do we expect God to hear and respond to our prayers or do we think God has turned a deaf ear? Is our prayer a few seconds of weak, unfocused words with little trust or faith? Is our prayer a mere formality, a vain repetition of words with little heart and passion in them?

Eric Ludy –This is not some bb gun that God has given us to try to shoo away raccoons in the night. Prayer is nuclear power, world renovating in its epic strength. When used according to the pattern of Scripture, prayer alters history, alters the natural world, and alters the human soul. The Sword is too heavy for a mere man to carry, but prayer enables us to lift it, swing it, and transform the world around us with it. Prayer is the catalyst behind everything Godly taking place in the earth.

EM Bounds – Our praying needs to be pressed and pursued with an energy that never tires, a persistency which will not be denied and a courage that never fails.

Ludy – This concept of “praying through” can alter your entire spiritual life, but it can make you greatly uncomfortable because it goes against the way we are naturally built as humans. The great giants of the faith like George Mueller, CT Studd, Hudson Taylor, Rees Howell and Amy Carmichael all knew what it meant to pray through. Prayer is taking from God’s purchase on the cross (His promises in the finished work of Jesus Christ) and like a grappling hook throwing the hook up to heaven to these promises and pulling, pulling and pulling until the promise comes into manifestation on the earth. Prayer is the action of faith on the earth. Prayer is our way of saying: “I’ll prove that God is who He says He is; just watch.” Framework of prayer—thy kingdom come thy will be done on earth as it is on heaven. We have a God job to do in persistent prayer. Take what God has done and bring it to the earth through prayer.

¹⁶Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. ¹⁷Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months. ¹⁸And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

No limits are set to the power of prayer.

Look at the persistence of Elijah’s prayer in 1 Kings 18, which is one of the greatest moments in the history of the world. It illustrates the mockery and foolishness of serving or praying to anyone but God. Elijah had the promise (verse 1); he prayed and brought it from heaven to the earth. This whole amazing demonstration of the power of God was a result of time he had spent in intense prayer in his prayer closet. Prayer prepares you to face the challenges of ministry.

Prayer Closet – Matthew 6

⁵“And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by men. I tell you the truth, they have received their reward in full. ⁶But when you pray, go into your room, close the door and pray to your Father, who is unseen. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

AW Tozer – The man who would know God must spend time with Him. True prayer demands more of our lives than most are willing to give and therefore few ever taste of its power and delights. You need to be radical in your prayer life.

The Doctrine of Answered Prayer

- God has promised and He cannot lie.
- You can stand on it like a solid rock; we do not waver.

Answered Prayer is guaranteed when prayer is done God’s way and according to His pattern set forth in Scripture.

Prayer is not based on a guess as God for certain wants to bring His promises into manifestation on the earth. Don’t stop praying until you see the promise come to pass. Faith, when it is real, expresses itself through prayer. Prayer is a holy confidence, a godly certainty and an unwavering trust in God’s promise and you don’t back down. You know what God is able to do and you immediately take it to God in prayer knowing He is faithful beyond measure.

Hebrews 6:13-18 (NLT)

¹³For example, there was God’s promise to Abraham. Since there was no one greater to swear by, God took an oath in his own name, saying: ¹⁴“I will certainly bless you, and I will multiply your descendants beyond number.” ¹⁵Then Abraham waited patiently, and he received what God had promised. ¹⁶Now when people take an oath, they call on someone greater than themselves to hold them to it. And without any question that oath is binding. ¹⁷God also bound himself with an oath, so that those who received the promise could be perfectly sure that he would never change his mind. ¹⁸So God has given both his promise and his oath. These two things are unchangeable because it is impossible for God to lie.

Word of God Not Stuttering On These Points

- Ask, and it shall be given you . . . – Matthew 7:7

Response to the Devastation Caused by Hurricane Irma

Hurricane Irma ran a path of destruction across the Leeward Islands, French and Dutch St. Maarten, the US and British Virgin Islands on 05 and 06 September 2017.

Barbuda seems to have been hardest hit. Confirmed reports indicate that the infrastructure is ninety percent (90%) destroyed with one fatality. This is a crisis of major proportion, for those who are in shelters have no house to return to. There is talk of evacuating the fifteen hundred (1500) families on Barbuda to Antigua until they rebuild.

PEC REPORTS

Reports out of St. Maarten, Anguilla, Tortola, St. John and St. Thomas indicate that they were badly damaged by the Category 5 Hurricane Irma. They need our prayers and help.

How can we as a Moravian Community help? As a first response to the crisis, the EWIP will contribute $5,000.00 to the Barbuda rebuilding effort to purchase well needed supplies. Secondly, we invite every member in every Congregation to respond with a generous offering to assist our brothers and sisters in the recovery effort. An offering was taken on Sunday 24 September 2017. As other needs become apparent, members will be informed accordingly.

Hymn of the Month September 2017

The start of a new academic year comes with a degree of excitement on the part of teachers, students and parents. After the long lazy days of summer, learners of all ages will embark on the journey of academic growth and continued development over the next 9 – 10 months. As we begin this new school year, our hymn for the month of September is # 77, My dear Redeemer and my Lord which was written in 1709 by Isaac Watts. The name of the tune appointed is Berkshire.

The central message of this hymn is this: the life of Jesus demonstrates the perfect example of a human life that is lived in total obedience to the will of God the Father. What we see in the Gospels is a life that was filled with the characteristics that we in our walk with God should also emulate. They include embracing truth, having a zeal for the things of God, showing love and meekness and possessing a deep commitment to a life of prayer. The closing stanza echoes the prayer for us as followers of Jesus to imitate the pattern that has been set before us. By so doing, our lives will mirror the image of Jesus himself.

Below are the words and music for the hymn of the month for September:

*My dear Redeemer, and my Lord,
I read my duty in thy word;
But in thy life the law appears
Drawn out in living characters.*

*2 Such was thy truth, and such thy zeal,
Such deference to thy Father's will,
Such love, and meekness so divine,
I would transcribe and make them mine.*

*3 Cold mountains and the midnight air
Witnessed the fervour of thy prayer;
The desert thy temptations knew,
Thy conflict and thy victory too.*

*4 Be thou my pattern; make me bear
More of thy gracious image here;
Then God the Judge shall own my name
Among the followers of the Lamb.*

1709. I. Watts

Hebrews 10:35-38 (NIV)

³⁵ So do not throw away your confidence; it will be richly rewarded. ³⁶ You need to persevere so that when you have done the will of God, you will receive what he has promised. ³⁷ For in just a very little while, "He who is coming will come and will not delay." ³⁸ But my righteous one will live by faith. And if he shrinks back, I will not be pleased with him.

Since prayer is detrimental to the evil one's purposes, Satan and his minions do their utmost to interfere when we pray especially opposing us when we try to take time for prayer because. The enemy knows better than most Christians the power of persistent prayer!

In any posture, in any attire, at any time, in any place, and under any circumstance, prayer is appropriate. Prayer is to be a total way of life; an open and constant communion with God.

Ludys' Wrestling Prayer – The greatest threat to our prayer life isn't the devil. It's not some external force, some harassing demon from without. Surprisingly the greatest threat to the powerful life of prayer is none other than you!

God's destiny for you is to be transformed into the image of His son and like Jesus become a spiritual rescuer. This is what prayer is all about. It is about doing the rescue work of Jesus on the earth. Prayer in a nutshell is kingdom business. God desires to build us into his workforce and set us about the Father's business. You see, in God's economy, things on this Earth do not change through wishing, through positive thinking, or through good karma. They change through faith expressing itself in loving fervent prayer. God's people are commissioned to ask, to seek, to knock and to plead the realities of heaven be made reality down here on Earth.

But there is a rebel part of your being that detests prayer, that seeks to avoid it at all costs, that gets extremely tired at simply the notion of it. This is what the Bible refers to as the flesh. And this flesh is the greatest and most formidable enemy of prayer.

The promises of prayer are extraordinary, but for prayer to work it must be purged of self and doubt. Doubt and unbelief are prayer killers. Your faith must be unwavering, stouthearted, persistent and unmovable.

True prayer never violates the nature of God. What He is like is what our prayers should be like. True prayer has the glory of God as its aim—not the comfort of men, nor the fleshly pleasures of humanity or a selfish plea for comfort and blessing as prayer is not using God as our personal servant or an ATM machine. True prayer must be offered out of a life that is true-true to God, true to Scripture, true in heart, true in motive and true in purity.

Wiersbe writes that praying without ceasing... certainly doesn't mean that we should constantly be repeating prayers, because Jesus warned against that kind of praying (Mt 6:7). Rather, it means to make prayer as natural to us as our regular breathing. Unless we are sick or smothering, we rarely think about our breathing; we just do it. Likewise, with prayer—it should be the natural habit of our lives, the "atmosphere" in which we constantly live.

Luke 22

²⁸ You are those who have stood by me in my trials. ²⁹ And I confer on you a kingdom, just as my Father conferred one on me... ³¹ "Simon, Simon, Satan has asked to sift you [a] as wheat. ³² But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers."

Mission Festival 2017 Update

The Moravian Church St. Kitts Conference came into being because of the burning passion of the early missionaries to share the good news of the gospel in the West Indies.

Through the missionaries, the slaves were educated and the early church continued the education process, helping to transform the minds of a people. The mission of the early church was a collective approach. Many speak of their early education process being in the Moravian Church.

Today, the Moravian Church continues its missionary walk throughout the world. Although times have changed, we are mindful of the command from our Lord to go into the world and share the gospel.

We can see our Missionary thirst today as one to build the people of God. Apostle Paul says in Ephesians 4:11-13 that the gifts were given to the church to equip God's people to do His work and build up the church, the body of Christ. This will continue until we all come to such unity in our faith and knowledge of God's Son that we will be mature in the Lord, measuring up to the full and complete standard of Christ. The emphasis is to build up the people so that they can function in their capacity in the earth to advance the Kingdom of God.

Therefore, the funds we collect as a congregation will affect the educational and humanitarian needs of persons in the Federation and across the world. The leadership has set a target of $35,000.00. At the end of our Missionary Festival, scheduled for 26 November 2017, the funds will be disbursed as follows:

- Zion Moravian Scholarship Fund - $5,000.00
- Zion Dorcas Ministry - $6,000.00
- Provincial & Conference Projects - $9,450.00

- Grenada Mission - $3,637.50
- Tortola Mission - $3,637.50
- Trinidad Moravian: Memorial Moravian - $3,637.50

We can do it Zion. Let us give generously. We can affect change through our giving.

YOUTH CONNECTION - 10 TIPS FOR NEW HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

As a new High School student, you may have many fears and worries about how the High School experience will be. I remember having the same uncertainties but High School is not as scary as it seems. Here is my advice for any incoming students on how to start their first year. (Please note that these are in no particular order.)

1. High School is one of the most important times of your life

What you do during your 5 years in High School often determines which way your life will go. There is no magic do-over button that you can press to start over. I know many persons who wish they can get a second chance at High School, so make the most of the chances you are given.

2. Think of High School as a blank slate. That is, think of it as a time to start over.

Whatever behavioural issues you may have had in Primary School, whatever bad habits you had such as fighting, not doing homework or assignments...LEAVE THEM BEHIND. A bad reputation can follow you only if you let it.

3. Be Yourself!

I know you hear this over and over but — it's important! You'll get the most satisfaction out of High School if you focus on the people and activities which feel right to you, regardless of what seems to be cool or the "in thing" at that moment.

4. Try to see the Bigger Picture

Even though it might be hard to imagine life beyond High School...it does exist. High School is a wonderful time, but it comes to an end before you know it. It is normal to be unsure of what you want to do when you leave High School. However, it is important to set goals and make some sort of plan for your life so that you do not end up settling.

5. Do not be afraid to ask for help! Your teachers are there to help.

"If you never ask, the answer will always be no." I know this has probably already been drilled into your heads many other times, but it is important that you understand that your teachers are there to make sure you understand the material. Therefore, you need to ask questions. Even if you do not do so in the general class setting, speak to your teacher after class if you need to. Asking questions leads to learning something new. Do not miss the opportunity to learn something new because you are too afraid to ask.

6. Be organized!

High School is a time when you need to be more responsible.

That means you should have your timetable posted in your room or in an area where you can see it, having all of the supplies you need daily, ensuring that your bag is packed with all that you need and making a note of all of the assignments and homework and due dates so that you do not forget anything and lose unnecessary points.

7. Don't be afraid to make new friends, but be mindful of the type of friends you make.

A friend is not someone who will encourage you to skip class, or not do your homework, or get you into trouble. A friend is someone who will bring out the best in you, tell you when you are wrong and encourage and support you. Choose wisely!

8. Strive for Good Grades.

While getting good grades may have come naturally to you in Primary School, in High School you have to work a little harder and it is very competitive. It is important that you develop good study habits and stay on top of your homework early on because I hate to tell you that each year gets harder. There will be times when you will feel overwhelmed, but work hard to stay on top of your studies. Good grades and a strong work ethic will get you far.

9. Get involved in extracurricular activities-

All work and no play makes Jack/Jill a dull boy/girl. I believe getting involved is crucial in High School. Every High School offers multiple clubs, organizations and athletics. Getting involved exposes you to new opportunities and a chance to meet new people, but it is all about balance. You can't put all of your energy or focus into clubs or organizations or playing football and ignore your class work. It is possible to be successful at both.

10. Make Memories and Have fun!

I know it feels like you have forever until you graduate, but I promise you, you will blink and it will be over. There will be times when you will say "I hate High School", "I'm ready to graduate". However, I cannot stress this enough: High School is one of the greatest moments in life! Live it and love it to the fullest everyday!

I take this opportunity to wish each of you the very best and pray that you will have a successful school year.

INSTRUMENT OF PEACE

Greetings my Family!

I am indeed grateful to be alive to witness the beginning of the month of October. The month of September was indeed a trying time for those of us who experienced the unprecedented hurricanes/tropical storms in the Caribbean and the southern USA, particularly the states of Florida and Texas. Since that time, I have found myself in a spirit of gratitude--giving thanks to our Almighty God for spared lives and minimal damage to our infrastructure, housing stock and physical assets (in comparison to other islands) in this part of the region. Our brothers and sisters in some of our sister conferences were not so fortunate. We pause to remember in prayer all those who have been affected, especially our church families in Antigua and Barbuda, the United States Virgin Islands, Tortola and St Maarten. May they find comfort in knowing that the God we serve is bigger than any STORM that they may ever experience. Their experiences would be told for years to come; loss of lives, physical damage of unheard proportions and psychological trauma. Nevertheless, they too must have a spirit of gratitude as they give thanks to God for His tender mercies and His compassion and faithfulness.

As we continue to count our blessings, let us not forget what Jesus said, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid." (John 14:27--NIV). God has a special place in his heart for all of us. He has promised never to forsake us. When the world seems to be in turmoil, He is right there keeping watch over us. Be mindful that He is our God who knows our 'going in and our coming out'. Let us press forward knowing that our material possessions can be replaced in due course. However, our lives cannot be replaced. His blessings come to us in various forms. Think about it, they might come as a friend who visits you with something to eat or simply a bucket of ice and water, a family member who assists you in purchasing and replacing your shingles/galvanize or your prayer buddy from church who offers prayerful support for your current situation after the storm. All in all, we should give thanks for the many blessings that He has given to us.

As we weathered the storms, there were two songs that resonated in my spirit: the contemporary worship song (Still--Hide Me Now) and my featured song for this month, the all-time favourite 'Til The Storm Passes By'. This song echoes God's promise to travel with us throughout our lives--no matter where our paths take us. In reflection of the past month's challenging experiences, let us always remember that our Heavenly Father cares for us and would continue to shower us with His love, care and mercy. Let God be praised.

'Til The Storm Passes By

*In the dark of the midnight have I oft hid my face
While the storm howls above me, and there's no hiding place
'Mid the crash of the thunder, Precious Lord, hear my cry
Keep me safe 'til the storm passes by*

Refrain

*'Til the storm passes over, 'til the thunder sounds no more
'Til the clouds roll forever from the sky
Hold me fast, let me stand in the hollow of Thy hand
Keep me safe 'til the storm passes by*

*Many times Satan whispered, "There is no need to try
For there's no end of sorrow, there's no hope by and by"
But I know Thou art with me, and tomorrow I'll rise
Where the storms never darken the skies*

*When the long night has ended and the storms come no more
Let me stand in Thy presence on the bright peaceful shore
In that land where the tempest, never comes, Lord, may I Dwell with Thee when the storm passes by*
