FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK REV HILTON J JOSEPH

Rev Hilton J Joseph

As we enter into the Hurricane season, although predictions are saying that it will not be a very active season, let us be prepared: make those checks on house and other property, do not stock as much frozen food as other times of the year, stock up on tinned foods, ensure that all important documents are in Ziploc bags and in a safe place, and finally make sure that you have an emergency plan.

Be blessed and covered my family as we continue to avail ourselves to be used by our Lord in the building up of His Kingdom

Yours in Christ
Hilton J Joseph

My Family in Christ,

Recently, my spiritual Mum, in one of our conversations, made a statement to me that caused me as usual to pause and wonder if she had a preview to my thoughts before I got the download. She said, "Son, you need a Gethsemane moment."

I marvelled at her statement because I was indeed wrestling with the thought that I needed a Gethsemane moment: the place where Jesus wrestled with destiny. In my reflection it was also a place where He retreated – a familiar place of relaxation, a place of prayer. (Judas knew the spot well.)

So it was time to go to that familiar place for a time of prayer and reflection.

We all need a place for a time of prayer and reflection if we are to live the life of purpose that God intends for us. This thought brought back to mind some readings that were shared with me and which I had shared during the Lenten season, "Stealing Away", which I have submitted for our reading and reflection. May you be blessed and encouraged in your journey.

Stealing Away:

The Unsung Pre-eminent Task of Leadership

One of the most beautiful songs you'll ever hear, no matter what your musical tastes, is "Steal Away" sung by Kathleen Battle on her enchanting CD, So Many Stars. Her voice, Cyrus Chestnut's and the late Grover Washington Jr.'s playing, and the moving lyrics make for an exquisite play-it-again presentation.

Whenever I listen to that song (I am listening now as I write), I think of how intentional we must be if we are to experience moments of soul-easing in times that try our souls. If we are not careful and mindful, we can go through an entire day doing important things and not take a moment to breathe, to ease up, to be still, to rest that we might be renewed and restored. We need sufficient unrushed time and un-cramped space in our lives for new ideas to simmer, surface, and be seen.

As committed and satisfied as we may feel, the reality is that we have not only shortchanged ourselves, but we have shortchanged others. At

Appreciation Service for Rev Nasel Y Ephraim

Rev Nasel Ephraim and Rev Hilton Joseph

On Thursday 24 April 2014, an Appreciation Service was held in honour of Rev Nasel Ephraim at the Bethesda Moravian Church, Cayon. Officiating at the service were Chairman of the Provincial Elders Conference, Eastern West Indies Province, Rev Dr Cortroy Jarvis, local clergy, Superintendent, Rev Hilton Joseph and Rev Jeremy Francis. Greetings were brought by other specially invited clergy members including the Venerable Archdeacon Valentine Hodge Deputy Chairman of the St. Kitts Christian Council.

The Governor General, Sir Edmund Lawrence, along with Hon Marcella Liburd, Hon Timothy Harris and Hon Eugene Hamilton was also in attendance.

Worship through tribute was given by Miss Dawne Williams, President of the Business and Professional Women's Club. There were also tributes in song, dance and musical renditions by the Moravian congregations across the Conference.

The featured speaker, Rev. Dr. Cortroy Jarvis admonished the Sister and all those present that Jehovah God is still in the business of 'Pulling Down, Pushing Forward and Saving from Perishing.' In her response, Rev. Nasel indicated that for the past five years and nine months of work in the St. Kitts Conference, her greatest achievement was to observe the growth in the people she shepherded. She spoke passionately about her new found avenue, that is, working to affect changes in HIV/AIDS prevention and coping strategies.

Her favourite scripture was read by Lay Pastor Ivyn Williams - St. James 4: 1 - 10, 17 - What causes quarrels and what causes fights among you? Is it not this that your passions are at war within you? ²You desire and do not have, so you murder. You covet and cannot obtain, so you fight and quarrel. You do not have, because you do not ask. ³You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions. ⁴You adulterous people! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. ⁵Or do you suppose it is to no purpose that the Scripture says, "He yearns jealously over the spirit that he has made to dwell in us"? ⁶But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, "God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble." ⁷Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. ⁸Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. ⁹Be wretched and mourn and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to gloom. ¹⁰Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will exalt you. ¹⁷So whoever knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin.

Favourite Song - 'To the Work To the Work'

*To the work! To the work! We are servants of God;
Let us follow the path that our Master has trod;
With the balm of His counsel our strength to renew,
Let us do with our might what our hands find to do.*

Refrain

*Toiling on, toiling on,
Toiling on, toiling on,
Let us hope and trust,
Let us watch and pray,
And labor till the Master comes.*

*To the work! To the work! Let the hungry be fed;
To the fountain of life let the weary be led;
In the cross and its banner our glory shall be,
While we herald the tidings, "Salvation is free!"*

*To the work! To the work! There is labor for all;
For the kingdom of darkness and error shall fall;
And the love of our Father exalted shall be,
In the loud swelling chorus, "Salvation is free!"*

Appreciation Service for Rev Nasel Y Ephraim (Cont'd)

*To the work! To the work! In the strength of the Lord,
And a robe and a crown shall our labor reward,
When the home of the faithful our dwelling shall be,
And we shout with the ransomed, "Salvation is free!"*

The St. Kitts Conference wishes Rev Nasel Ephraim every blessing as she seeks to enlarge her territory through kingdom building.

Hymn of the Month for May 2014

For May, the hymn of the month is #124 in the current hymnal. It is the hymn Come Let Us Sing the Song of Songs and was written by the Moravian missionary James Montgomery in 1841.

The recommended tune is Ely which is also the set tune. The metre of the hymn is a long metre. In the hymn we are invited to render worship to our Lord Jesus Christ through the repeated refrain 'worthy the Lamb for He was slain'. Revelation 13:8 refers to Jesus Christ as such a Lamb and throughout this hymn we see why Jesus, as the slain Lamb is deserving of our adulation. We offer songs of praise and adoration because of all the benefits that are ours by faith.

We are cleansed, made royalty in God's sight, and are assured of a place in heaven.

But beyond drawing attention to the benefits that are ours, the hymn also forces us to recognize again that the benefits which we have and will receive did not come without a cost to Christ himself. And so in the hymn we are reminded of the sufferings of Christ. Yet because of what he suffered, in obedience to the father then he now possesses a place of prominence that is unmatched both in earth and heaven. As we continue in the Easter season and look forward to celebrating Pentecost and Christ's Ascension, this hymn is a timely reminder of how through the work of Christ we have received an inheritance that is incomparable to anything that this world offers.

Come Let Us Sing the Song of Songs

*Come let us sing the song of songs,
With hearts and voices swell the strain,
The homage which to Christ belongs;
'Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!'*

*Slain to redeem us by his blood,
To cleanse from every sinful stain,
And make us kings and priests to God;
'Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!'*

*To him who suffered on the tree,
Our souls, at his soul's price, to gain,
Blessing, and praise, and glory be;
'Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!'*

*To him, enthroned by filial right,
All powers in heaven and earth pertain,
Honour and majesty and might;
'Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!'*

*Long as we live, and when we die,
And while in heaven with him we reign,
This song our song of songs shall be;
'Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!'*

A Pleasant Surprise on Mother's Day

Sis Doris Adams

On Mother's Day, it was a great surprise to me when I was presented with a beautiful basket of fruits by Daria James and Takoya Slack on behalf of the Junior Choir. My memory reflected on the past, when I conducted the Junior Choir for ten years during the time of the late Reverends Matthias and Holder, former pastors at Zion.

The Choir in those days sang on a weekly basis, dressed in their maroon gowns and participated in scripture reading. As I look around the church, I still see former members, Mia Lapsey, Ilynda Henry, Keimon Archibald, Angela and others. However, former members: Dr Giovanna Matthew, Sisters Valda Morris-Slack, Beverly Dunrod Harper and the Douglas sisters, migrated, but visit Zion while on vacation.

The Choir was also involved in handicraft, which was displayed on an annual basis. Their Christmas cantatas always attracted a fair attendance, after which they looked forward to their Christmas party.

Thanks to Sister Jillian Archibald for the thoughtful gesture and may you and your team continue to sow seeds in God's vineyard.

Expression of Thanks to Sister Telca Francis

In Psalm 100 and verse 4, we are reminded to “Enter His gates with thanksgiving; go into His courts with praise. Give thanks to Him and praise His name.” This scripture captures the underlying theme of thanksgiving, as the Leadership and Members of the Zion Moravian Church, in particular the Zion Senior Choir (ZSC), paid glowing tribute to Sister (Sis) Telca Francis on Mother’s Day (11 May 2014). Sis Francis who is the proud mother of one child, Brother (Bro) Reg Francis and grandmother of Khalid Francis, was indeed delighted to attend the 2014 Mother’s Day service. Her husband, Bro Ben Francis also attended the service.

Two brothers from the ZSC, Brothers Norman Gill and Wycliffe Morton Jr, shared in making the brief presentation to Sis Francis. In doing so, they thanked Sis Francis for the sterling contribution that she has made to the music ministry at Zion for 32 years. They further stated that Sis Francis served with humility, passion and commitment. Sis Francis shared her talent with so many members and visitors alike at Zion over the years. Through her musical talent, she has ministered to many hearts and inspired many minds. As the organist of the ZSC, she dedicated many hours to assisting the choir with its rehearsals for Sunday morning services, cantatas, special functions and funerals. As a Church family, we are forever indebted to Sis Francis for her time, efforts and most of all her dedication to the work at Zion.

In her response, Sis Francis thanked God first and foremost for His powerful hand in her life. “I have had some difficult days in terms of my health, but God has proven over and over again that He is with me all the time. I want to thank my family: my husband of 48 years, my son and my grandson for their love and support over the years. They have been my support network. Thanks to the Zion Senior Choir for initiating this gesture. I am forever grateful to all who have offered words of prayer and comfort for me during my time of illness,” Sis Francis remarked.

We thank the Lord for blessing Sis Francis over the years as she willingly offered herself for service. Special thanks to Sis Aslyn Broadbelt (on behalf of the ZSC) and Bro Christian Nathaniel (on behalf of the Zion Moravian Church) for presenting the fruit baskets to Sis Francis.

Sis Francis as you continue your earthly sojourn, we pray for renewed strength on your life. We can never repay you for your years of service, but we are happy that we were given another opportunity to thank you for your labour of love and sacrifice at Zion.

In conclusion, this is our prayer: Father God, we approach your throne with thankful and appreciative hearts. We offer thanks dear Father, for Sis Francis and her family. Let love, prosperity, happiness and joy flow through their home like an overflowing stream. Father, we ask that a continuous spirit of peace will reign in her heart and mind. Heavenly Father, where there is pain, let relief flow through freely. Replace tired feet and hands with rejuvenated feet and hands. Gracious Father, let her always sing praises about Your name and goodness; because with You all things are possible. Lord, we thank You for the gracious hand of favour on her life. Amen.

Zion's Father of the Year 2014

Brother Samuel Nathaniel

Joshua 24:15 ... But as for me and my household, we will serve the LORD."

Proverbs 22:6 Train a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn from it.

The majority of countries celebrate Father's Day on the third Sunday in the month of June. This year, the Voice of Zion Committee and the general membership of the Zion Moravian Church wish to recognize Bro Samuel Nathaniel as the Father of the Year.

Bro Nathaniel grew up in a family unit without his father, causing his mother to play both roles. He is extremely thankful for being raised in a closely-knit family that comprised his mother, three boys (himself included) and two girls. However, he is also thankful for the male mentors that he had while growing up. In spite of not having an active father in his life, Bro Nathaniel purposed in himself to play a major role in his children's life.

A good personal relationship with God is the core of good familial relationships. There is no greater blessing than for children to be brought up under the sheltering leadership of a dad who walks with God. Bro Nathaniel accepted Christ as his personal Saviour at the age of 22 and got married at 28.

After having two children— a girl and a boy – he and his family relocated to England while he pursued studies in Accountancy. He made the conscious decision of keeping his family together in the midst of the relocations because family was of key importance to him.

Upon hearing that he was selected to be the Father of the Year, Bro Nathaniel immediately declared that he was no expert on fathering. However, he shared these general guiding principles on fathering, noting that each case of child-rearing is unique:

- Love your children; do not worship them – ... for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, ... (Exodus 20:5)
- Some parents behave as if their child can do no wrong and defend them without getting the facts. Always try to get the facts before saying or doing anything.

- Do not refrain from disciplining your children. If you refrain, the impact will be that when they are older, they will have no respect for you (Proverbs 3:12 – because the LORD disciplines those he loves, as a father the son he delights in. – NIV)
- Parents are entrusted with the training of their child and must teach them Christian virtues. The Bible says fathers must "bring them up in the training and instruction of the Lord" – Ephesians 6:4, NIV. Training must not be left to others, e.g.: teachers. One key principle/concept that must be taught is CONTENTMENT. When this isn't taught, children turn to stealing and other vices.
- Pray for your children and with your children and let them know that you are praying for them. Divine change must take place. It is a great assurance for children to know that their father is praying for them!

Bro Nathaniel said that if a man is getting married and/or expecting a baby, he should prepare himself for fatherhood by consulting with 'experienced' fathers. He further stated that they should talk to wives too owing to women's different temperament.

He reiterated that fathers need to develop patience with both their children and spouse. He always tried to be careful that the example that he set reflected the way that he wanted his children to follow; girls especially look at their fathers as role models.

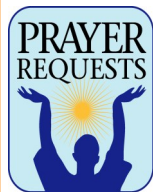

Outside of his involvement in his family's life, Bro Nathaniel has also positively impacted the lives of many others. He made an outstanding contribution to the St. Christopher Children's Home and the lives of those who passed through that institution, while serving as a Board member. The former Chairperson, Marlene Liburd, stated that his love and concern for the welfare of the children and staff were very evident and described him as a stabilizing force within the organization.

Bro. Nathaniel is currently the Advisor to the Executive Board of the Moravian Church St. Kitts Conference. However, he has served the Moravian Church in many other capacities. He was an Officer in the Boys' Brigade, served in the Sunday School Department as both teacher and Superintendent. He was also the Treasurer at both the local level (Zion) and the Conference level. He served on the Boards of Stewards and Elders and is an Acolyte. He also served at the level of the Provincial Elders Conference Eastern West Indies Province for three terms as a Lay Representative.

Bro Nathaniel ended by saying that he tried his best to raise his children and that they have been very co-operative. They have given him a total of seven grandchildren and he keeps in close contact with his family, especially with the various means of communication now available. He is thankful to God for the influence he had while growing up and especially for his

God Always Works Miracles

God always works miracles and little Gabrielle Sargeant Okyere is a living testimony of such a miracle. The journey was a rough and rocky one from the day of inception but her mother, Amalyn Sargeant Okyere and dad, Yaw Okyere kept the faith. The doctors said it was a 50/50 chance although she had a very strong heartbeat. She was expected on 25 May (Grandpa Malcolm's birthday), 29 May (Amalyn's birthday), lastly, 04 June but still no signs of the baby.

During her mother's last doctor's appointment, while in the waiting room on the first floor of the hospital, this darling baby decided that she will no longer keep us in suspense. Instead of going back home, the doctors and nurses were busy making preparations on the twelfth floor for her birth.

Everyone was so excited and waited in anticipation for the arrival, but this baby relaxed as if to say, "Take it easy, I will be there." In all of the excitement, I kept laughing and told them she knows exactly what she is doing, God is in control.

Finally at 11:45 am, 05 June 2012, (cousin Jovencia's birthday), baby Gabrielle made her entrance and sure enough her cries rang throughout the entire surroundings. It was a real joyful and precious moment to stand by my daughter's bedside, along with her husband, giving her all of the support she needed.

Once again, I wish personally to thank all those who kept us in their prayers. We serve an awesome God and it's because of His blessings and tender mercies, we can celebrate the 2nd Birthday of Gabrielle Sargeant Okyere. Have a wonderful and blessed birthday, Gabrielle!!!!!!!!!!

Instrument of Peace

Rise Up, O Men of God

A couple of years ago, I was invited by the Father's Day Planning Committee at the Bethesda Moravian Church in Cayon, St Kitts to make a presentation on the Importance of Fathers. As I reflected on my childhood in preparation for my address, I considered the influential role that my father has played in my life. Many of my earliest memories of my father are of him ensuring that we had a nutritious breakfast, taking us to school, and taking us on many trips to the mountains/rainforests to pick fruits and to the beach. He had a genuine way of expressing his love for us. He always made sure that he was never too busy to spend time with us--listening to and learning from our simple, innocent conversations. Even when we had done something wrong and he wanted to discipline us, he had a calm way of listening without being judgmental and then he applied the necessary mode of punishment. However, this did not deter him from using the 'rod' when he had to.

As a father, how do you show your children that they are meaningful to your life? As a father, are you ensuring that your children understand that you have great love and admiration for the heavenly Father? As a father, are you exhibiting support and respect for your children and your children's mother and/or wife? Take some time out to seriously consider these questions and make adjustments for improvement where applicable. We have heard it over and over, children learn by example. As adults, when we neglect to apply the practical words of wisdom from the Bible to our daily lives, we fail our children miserably.

In Deuteronomy 6:6 and 7, we are reminded that "These words that I am commanding you today must prove to be on your heart; and you must inculcate them in your son and speak of them when you sit in your house and when you walk on the road and when you lie down and when you get up." Fathers, I admonish you to break away from the negative forces that may be hindering you from living a life that is pleasing to God. In some cases, it might be abuse (verbal, emotional and physical), alcoholism, drug addiction, adultery and other forms of fornication, 'workaholism', sexual addiction, laziness, anxiety and so on. Submit to God in prayer whatever is trying to take a negative hold in your life. Ask God to release it and establish a hedge of protection around your life and that of your family. Happy Father's Day in advance! Men of God, rise up so that you can be a blessing to others!

Rise Up, O Men of God

*Rise up, O men of God!
Have done with lesser things.
Give heart and mind and soul and strength
To serve the King of kings.*

*Rise up, O men of God!
The kingdom tarries long.
Bring in the day of brotherhood
And end the night of wrong.*

*Rise up, O men of God!
The church for you doth wait,
Her strength unequal to her task;
Rise up and make her great!*

*Lift high the cross of Christ!
Tread where His feet have trod.
As brothers of the Son of Man,
Rise up, O men of God!*

When they saw the boldness of Peter and John and realized that they were uneducated and ordinary men, they were amazed and recognised them as companions of Jesus. Acts 4:13

Lord, as we begin a new week be our guide in all we do and say. Answer our prayers according to your will and let us not forget the ever faithful friendship we have with you. Amen.

The Voice of Zion...
Empowered to do Ministry

*The greatest gift
I ever had came from God
I call him Dad*

From The Pastor's Desk (Cont'd)

best, due to our depleted state, persons are always receiving a part of us. A depleted self, no matter how devoted, is still a depleted self. This is why self-care is such a benevolent act. It ensures that the world and the people in it, more often than not, receive our best selves and not our soul diminished and famished imposters.

Taking a moment each day before the day is done to ease our souls down in the soothing waters of God's healing love can make a world of sacred creative difference. Moreover, I have found that such a soaking of soul, first thing in the morning, can set the mood for liberating and empowering love for the entire day.

Living from love, filled with love, is the essential prerequisite for leadership, particularly pastoral leadership that we rarely talk about. How is it possible to offer love if we don't have love, if we ourselves don't feel loved, aren't filled with love continually? The presumption, you may suspect, is an understanding of service that suggests one must be served first in order to serve well. I am convinced now that the first task of ministry is not to give anyone anything. The first calling of ministry is to receive and revel in God's precious love, each day, several times a day, especially at the start of the day. Stealing away to be renewed by God's love is the necessary prerequisite to offering God's love to others.

The first calling of ministry is not to give away; the first calling, the preeminent task of ministry, is stealing away. Stealing away is what fuels and flavours everything else we do in the Name and Spirit of Love. The prize for stealing away is a heart stolen away, in the most honourable sense of the word, by God."
